4

The Revd. D. Abercrombie
receipt for $80 paid
25th January 1827

$80.

John Read Esqr
President of the Bank of Philada

My dear Sir

Necessity once more compels me to be a solicitor. I am pressed for Rent, and am penny less at home. If you can favor me with One Hundred Dollars, you will very essentially relieve and oblige,

Your Friend & Obed't Ser't

Jas Abercrombie

Thursday
Jan'y 25. 1827

January 25th 1827 - Rec'd of John Read exonerating warden Eighty dollars on account of my salary as a portual minister in the United Churches to become due on the 10th April next -

for Dr Abercrombie Ch's Clarkson

#30.

John Read Esqr

D^r Sir,

"The" res angusta domi" again compel me to apply to you for aid. I will thank you, Sir, for whatever you can spare me; the larger, however, the sum, the greater will be the favour and benefit conferred upon,

D^r Sir,

Your much obliged
& Friend^t & Hble Serv^t

Feb^y 16^th
1827.

Jas Abercrombie

Febuary 17th 1827. Rc. of J. Read amounting Ch: Warden Sixty dollars in further paid of my salary as assistant Minister to become due 10th April next.

25. January $80. paid
17. Febuary 60. do
$140.

for L. Abercrombie
Ch. Clarkson

7.

D. Abercrombies receipt for $60. p. 17. Febuary 1827

$60.